

Standard resources

Standard resources cover most of the MailUp REST API. The term "standard" is used to distinguish the resources accessible through OAuth 2.0 from those that use a custom authentication method.

Only the standard resources use OAuth and require the application keys that can be obtained by activating a developer account

- Paging and filtering
- Text messages - SMS
- Manage Lists and Groups
- External content
- Authenticating with OAuth v2
- Email messages
- Recipients
- Email Statistics
- Samples and Wrappers