

SMTP+ send status

In this section of your platform you find the queue of the messages sent with the SMTP+ feature.

You can access this section only if at least one SMTP+ user has been configured

The page shows:

- number of messages sent during the current day
- number of message queued at the moment
- estimated time to send queued messages.

Clicking on "Refresh", the data will be updated.